EXTEND EDIT

- 1 Select an edit point
- 2 Park the playhead where it should be
- 3 Press E – the edit jumps to the playhead

WHY IT BEATS THE MOUSE

Lands on the frame you're parked on, not where snapping thinks you meant

Find the moment by ear first, then press E

Your hand never leaves the keyboard

Cutting to music

Play. Stop on the hit. E.
Next edit. Play. Stop. E.

A Premiere Pro tip, every Monday and Friday.

Save this one for your next edit – and if you've got a better way, tell me in the comments.
